

Lifting Spirits, Restoring Hope

2006 Annual Report

A Message from the Board President

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you to the many individuals, foundations, churches and organizations listed on these pages for your support which is so critical to our mental health counseling, emergency social services, and pastoral care programs for the working poor.

William Temple House would not be in its fifth decade of operation without the more than 1,000 contributors acknowledged here.

Peter W. Spiekerman

Thanks to you, each person who came to William Temple House's door was welcomed and treated with dignity and respect that made their personal crisis just a little easier to endure. With your help, our staff and volunteers will make a lasting impact on even more lives this year.

In addition to assuring that our staff and volunteers have the day-to-day resources to help families in need, the Board of Directors is also focused on long-term planning.

New logo reflects mission to assist families in need

William Temple House is pleased to introduce a new logo that our Board of Directors, staff and volunteers believe will make it easier to share the story of William Temple House's mission of restoring hope and renewing strength in families and individuals.

The new logo has been described as warm and reflective of the agency's day-to-day work providing mental health counseling, emergency social services and pastoral care to families in need. The new logo replaces a more abstract representation of the agency and its mission.

William Temple House is grateful to Gard & Gerber and the team of Mary Ann Aldridge, Will Markusen and Enid Nielsen for their pro-bono work to develop the logo and branding that identifies William Temple House as a mission-driven organization serving people in need.

Mary Ann Aldridge is Vice President/ Producer at Gard & Gerber and a member of the Board of Directors of William Temple House. Her team at Gard & Gerber developed the new logo and the Lifting Spirits, Restoring Hope tagline based on research and observation at William Temple House and on discussion with staff, volunteers and Board members.

"Gard & Gerber's contribution is significant and gives us tools to raise awareness of William Temple House in the community," according to Allen L. Hunt, executive director. "Increased exposure helps us share the William Temple House story with more people and eventually leads to greater financial, in-kind and volunteer support that allows us to serve more people in need."

Gard & Gerber is an advertising, public relations and public affairs firm based in Portland. President Brian Gard has been generous in providing the firm's expertise in public relations, marketing and advertising to William Temple House on a variety of projects including the development of the new logo and marketing for the annual Wickets & Wine Auction and Croquet Event.

William Temple House will phase in the new logo as existing supplies of letterhead, envelopes, business cards and other materials are exhausted. The agency's web site will be updated over the next several months both to reflect the new logo and to increase the usefulness of the web site to clients, volunteers, donors and others seeking information.

"Gard & Gerber's contribution...gives us tools to raise awareness of William Temple House in the community."

From Our Board President

The historic Mackenzie House – home to William Temple House since 1971 – needs replacement of its heating, cooling, electrical and other systems, seismic upgrades, accessibility improvements, and renovation to allow current unusable space to function well for the agency. The project will be costly and the board is exploring alternatives that will serve the agency now and well into the future.

The Board continues to look for suitable space in southeast Portland to open a second Thrift Store to increase revenue, help ensure the long-term financial stability of the agency and serve shoppers in southeast Portland and Milwaukie.

The Board is proud to have entered into a partnership with St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church in Milwaukie to provide school children with appropriate clothing so that something as simple as a pair of pants or a shirt is not a barrier to success in school. The St. John's clothing center is modeled after our Children Clothing Closet in Northwest Portland that has provided school clothes to hundreds of children of working poor families since 2002.

St. Peter and Paul Episcopal Church began offering mobile dental van services to the working poor in outer southeast Portland through a partnership with William Temple House.

Emergency food pantries at William Temple House North (based at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in north Portland) and William Temple House West (based at All Saints Episcopal Church in Hillsboro) reach more and more people in need each month.

As services expand through parish partnerships, the Board recognizes that we must also broaden our base of donors to ensure long-term financial stability. We continue to strive to increase the visibility of William Temple House and to introduce more and more people in our community to the important work done to serve the working poor.

As important as expanding our base of support is, we also recognize the importance of being responsive to and nurturing our relationships with the individuals who have given so generously of their time, talent and treasure over the past 42 years.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, thank you for your gifts and prayers during 2006. May the coming year be prosperous and happy to you and your family and the individuals and families who turn to William Temple House in times of crisis.

Respectfully Submitted

From Our Executive Director

Dear Friends of William Temple House,

I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me. I was naked and you gave me clothing. I was sick and you took care of me. [Paraphrased from Matthew 25.35-36.]

All of us at William Temple House—volunteers, staff, and donors—seek and serve Christ in all persons...respecting the dignity of every human being. [Adapted from the Baptismal Covenant in The Book of Common Prayer.]

Allen L. Hunt

I am deeply thankful for our wonderful volunteers, staff and donors, who make William Temple House services possible. It is the nature of life that we grapple with needs and find opportunities to serve.

William Temple House serves families and individuals who have material, psychological or spiritual needs. We also provide opportunities to volunteers and donors to serve their community.

We are pleased to expand our service reach through four Episcopal parish partnerships: Saint Andrew's in North Portland, All Saints in Hillsboro, Saints Peter and Paul in East

Portland, and Saint John's in Milwaukie. We look forward to a fifth parish partnership in the coming year.

All together, we engage more than 4,000 donors and more than 500 volunteers in serving more than 20,000 people, every year.

Because our thrift store earns approximately 45% of our total support, we continue to look for a suitable site for a second thrift store.

We are exploring ways to finance the rehabilitation and preservation of Mackenzie House (our historic headquarters), along with the remodeling of Abbott Hall (our services wing) to include affordable housing.

What I have reported, above, represents our continuing commitment to the values that underpin William Temple House. We are called to notice the hunger and illness in our community. We are asked to respond with kindness and compassion, as best we are able.

We need your help to continue this important work. There is great value in helping, volunteering and donating. In so doing, we are living our faith.

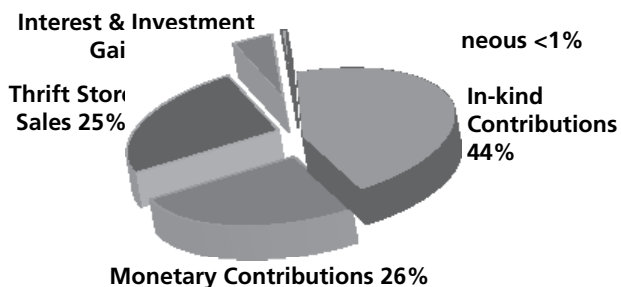

May God bless,

Allen L. Hunt
Executive Director
